

Sundragon Pottery News

August 2018

Sundragon on the move

On 1st September work will start on our new premises at Bowyer St Birmingham 10.

Our crowdfunding campaign, to raise enough money to kit it out as a state of the art pottery, will start on 15th September with a launch party at Bowyer St.

Building work will take a few months and we will be keeping you informed of progress over the next few weeks and months.

Moseley Farmers and Arts Market

Saturday 25th August 9am til 3pm

If you want to show and sell your work at this event you need to....

...have public liability insurance up to £5k

...offer at least ninety minutes support during the event

...complete application form (download from website <https://sundragonpottery.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/Sundragon-event-application.docx>)

Big Clean Up at Sundragon

- on Friday 31st August to Saturday 1st September
- Helpers needed
- Sundragon Pottery belongs to its members and this is a good way to support your pottery
- Sign up on the wipe clean board above glazes and slips.

Induction Handbook

...is now in use for joiners to the pottery. It's a really useful document and is informed by ideas and concerns from pottery members. All members will now receive a full induction to ensure we're all employing good practice.

Watch this space for dates/times of your induction.

Open Studios

Where?

Drawing room, Old Printworks

When?

Saturday & Sunday 8th & 9th September and Saturday & Sunday 15th & 16th September

All members are welcome to display and sell their work in return for at least 2 hours time staffing the exhibition.

To sign up fill in sign up sheet by the the signing in book.

